

Sofia Abarca

Board Member

Sofia Abarca is a member of the International Recruitment team for Jackson Therapy Partners where she oversees the recruitment and management of foreign trained therapist working at well over 100 worksites throughout the United States. She graduated from the University of Central Florida with a Master's in Social Work and Certificate for Children and Family Services. She is involved in multiple organizations in the community that focus on development for underprivileged individuals. She has experience in organizing and planning fundraisers and programs for community development.